

Healthy Relationship with Your Partner

- * We are all broken
- * Every couple has to battle through adversity and stupidity
- * Turn your relationship and your partner over to God
- * Actively work to fix any dysfunction within you or between you
- * The most powerful relationships that exist happen when both people individually commit to be Jesus followers, and then commit to their partnership to Him
- * Have a greater purpose for your relationship - something that makes our world a better place
- * Honor yourselves and each other
